RED EYE GRAVY

OKLAHOMA COWPUNK

Red Eye Gravy is the new sound of Oklahoma. The boys create a stylistic blend of traditional country music with the fast-paced punch of punk – adding a few hints of bluegrass, rockabilly and blues along the way. Red Eye Gravy embodies a timeless, traditional sound punched-up through the modern lens of rock & roll – loud, raw and uncompromising.

This ain't red dirt.... it's Oklahoma Cowpunk!

The band pummels through an exhilarating live show that captures the audience from the first burst of piercing vocals to the last notes of their deep-rooted sound. Combining a drummer baptized in punk rock, punching doghouse bass, gritty but melodic guitar and the feverish conviction of its vocalist, Red Eye Gravy will have you believing the Grand Ole Opry was just set on fire and burned to the ground. Whether playing original songs, traditionals, or the occasional cover, this band will deliver an unparalleled show.

Red Eye Gravy has performed in venues across Oklahoma, Arkansas, Kansas, Texas, Colorado, and Missouri, and has shared the stage with such acts as: Chuck Mead, Billy Joe Shaver, Junior Brown, Wayne "The Train" Hancock, Split Lip Rayfield, Roger Alan Wade, Reverend Payton Big Damn Band, Jason Boland and the Stragglers, and Jackson Taylor. Joshua was also asked to represent REG solo as an opening act for Scott H. Biram. Red Eye Gravy is considered one of the top 10 unsigned bands in Oklahoma.

"Red Eye Gravy walked up on the stage and played a style of music that could only be described as Honky Tonk on crack. Every country stereotype imaginable is embodied in Red Eye Gravy. Their music makes you want to chug a liter of moonshine and take a giant dump on the bar and walk across the street to get a Tweedy Bird tattoo." -Joey, The Lost Ogle

"I was given comfort to know that there was a band like Red Eye Gravy playing in Oklahoma. The band had an electrifying stage presence and Joshua had an incredible voice. It was a pleasure to have them open the show." -Junior Brown
